

Colonial Academic Alliance
the Power of Twelve

Global Education Conference 2010

Academic Success through Global Engagement: Sharing Best Practices

February 18-19, 2010

Virginia Commonwealth University

The Office of International Education at Virginia Commonwealth University is proud to host the 2010 Global Education Conference of the Colonial Academic Alliance (CAA).

The conference aims:

- To improve learning outcomes in international education by increasing student engagement;
- To encourage cooperation among international educators at CAA members and beyond;
- To promote awareness of the important contributions of international education both within and beyond our institutions.

Proposals are welcome for 15-30 minute presentations on successful efforts to enhance learning outcomes through increasing student engagement. Proposals in all areas of international education, including education abroad, international student services, faculty development and ESL instruction are welcome.

Please send a summary description (150 words maximum) of presentation to Elizabeth Hiatt eihiatt@vcu.edu by December 1, 2009. Full conference and registration information and final program available December 15.
